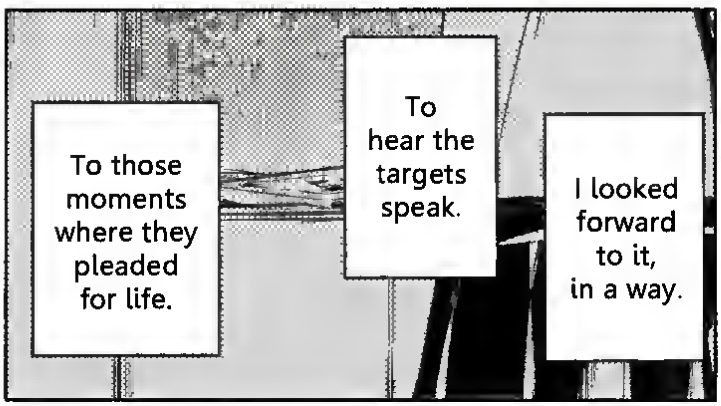
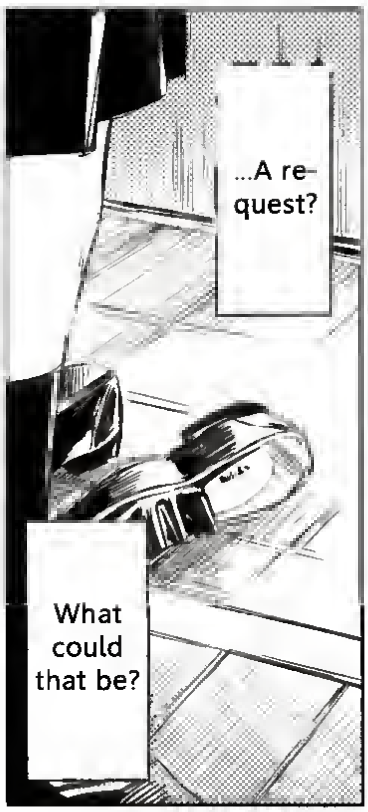
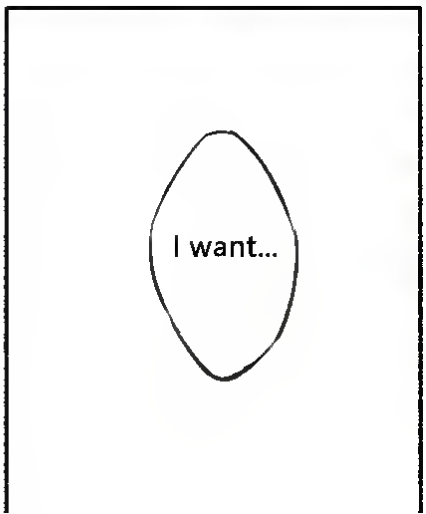
“Azure and Claude”

Manga / loundraw Original / Sugaru Miaki







I want to make a little change to the note.
(I hate myself, so I'm going to die.)
...Is that all?
I took over her body and asked:
What do you mean?
パチ

...
Could you change it to "I hate everything, so I'm going to die"?

...
Well, that sounds fine.
I want people to think "It's for the best that she died."
If that's possible...

Understood.

This target...

What could she be thinking?

...
Perhaps this target...
Yet did she feel even slightly bewildered?
She was being made to kill herself this very moment.
...Aren't you going to kill me?
I see...
Maybe long before I laid eyes on her...
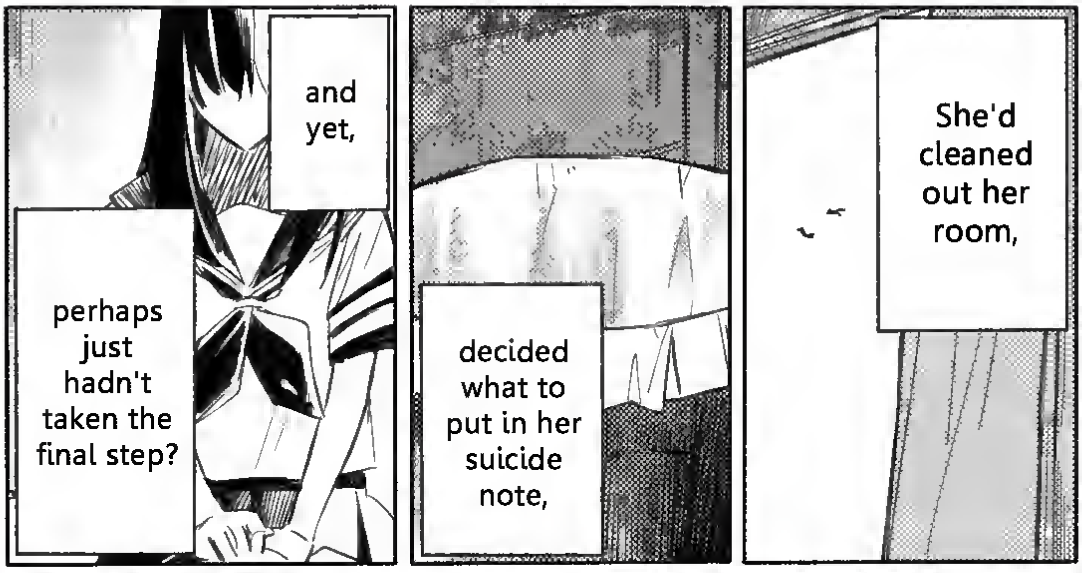
Not for today.

she was already intending to kill herself?



....Just one more day.
I'll watch for another day.
It would have explained the un-naturally clean room,
and her utter lack of opposition.

You have supplement classes during the break, as well.
All are expected to participate.
A-hem... It'll be summer break soon.
But it's an important time for you third-years.
Hey.
Hey...
Hey.
These forms I'm handing out are for your choice of course...
Pick the summer courses you want.
Forms for you.
Huh...?

Oh, it's okay.
Ahh... sorry.

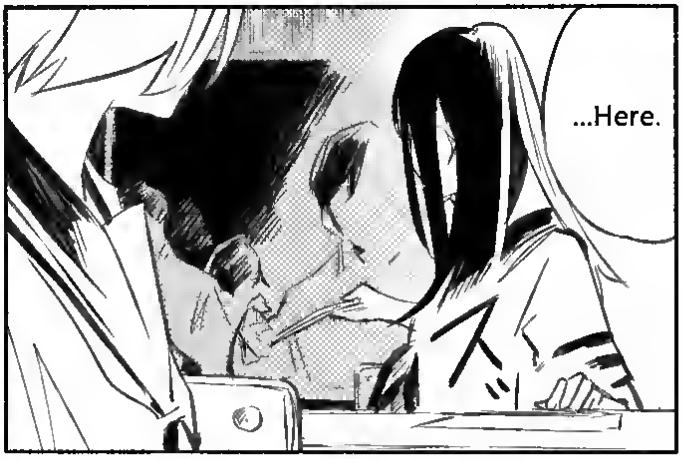
Summer courses...

As I thought.



...Here.

This target is awfully pessimistic about living.
fling
If my hypothesis is correct, killing the target would just mean granting her desire for suicide.
I'd just be like a volunteer.
whssssssh
That isn't what I want.
squeak
It doesn't please me to feel like I'm being used.
It's boring to kill people who long to die.

Yes...

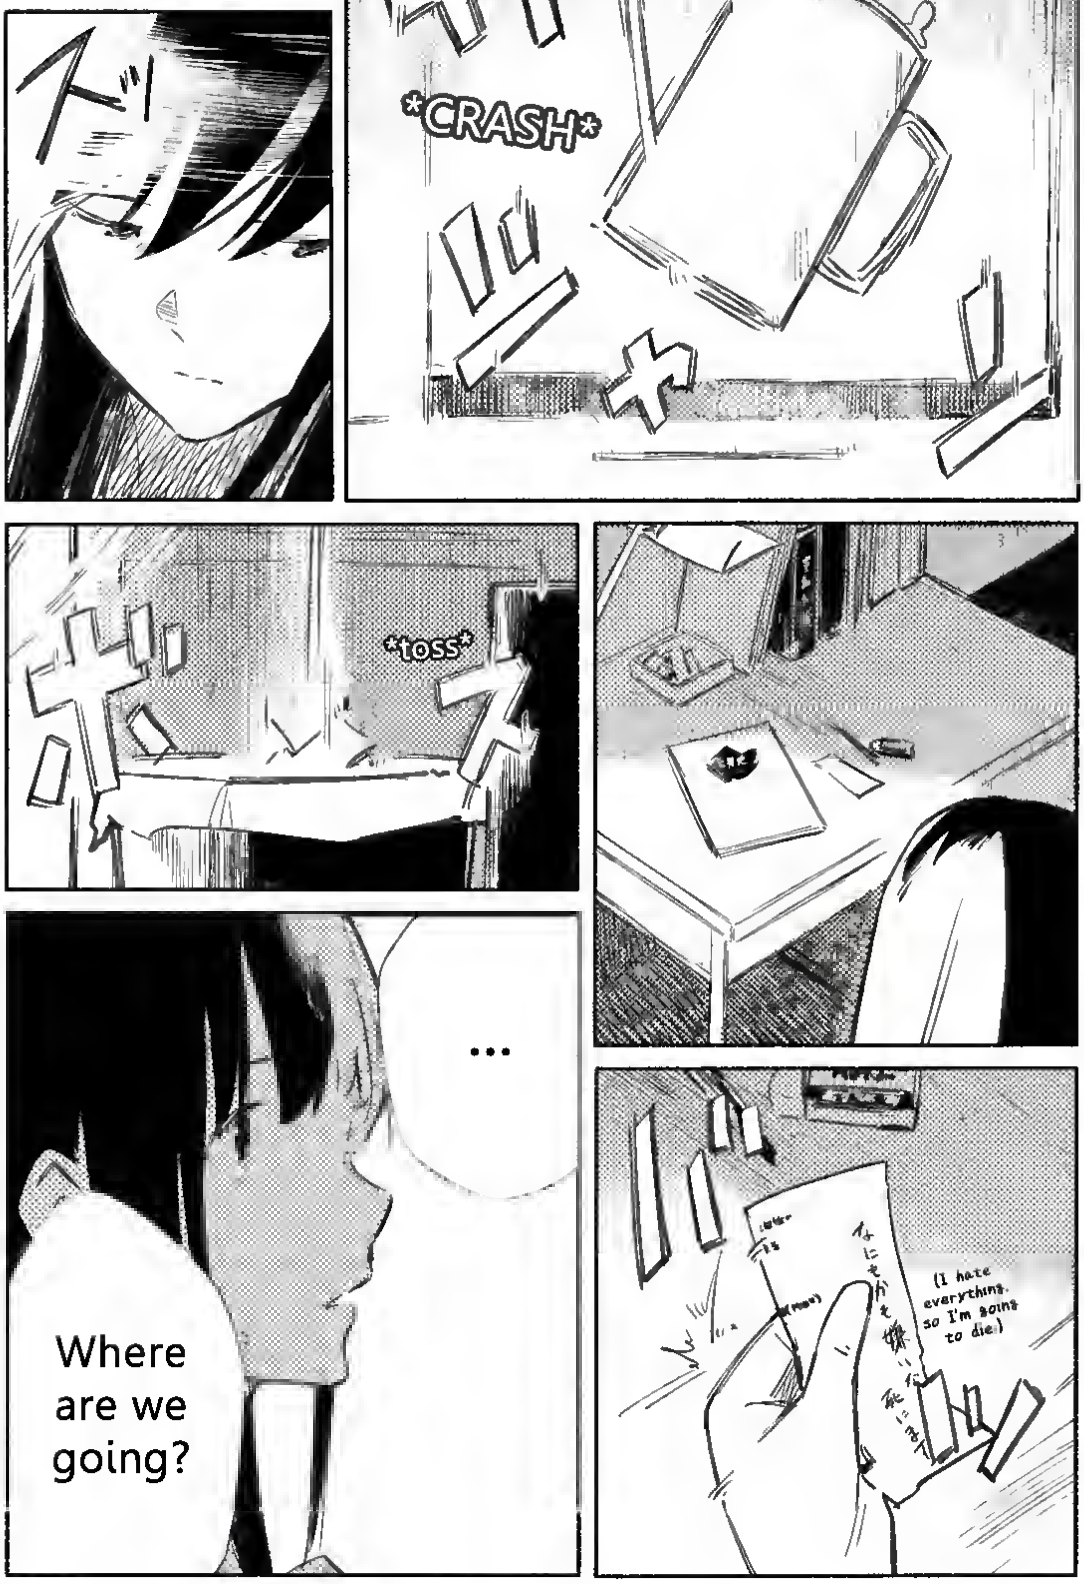
I hate being used by others more than anything.

Before I kill her,

let's tease this target a little.

Then I had a thought.

"I don't want to die"
Some-how,
I would make her say:
and then I would kill her.
- drag those words out of her own mouth,



CRASH
...
Where are we going?
(I hate everything. So I'm going to die.)

Just be quiet.
Shut up.
this was the first time I'd let personal affairs into my work.
